June 17, 2009	2009-155	Larry and Jacqueline Martini (Geoff Stenger) (Frank Cahill)		$500,000	Larry and Jacqueline Martini retained BLG with respect to an Offer to Purchase the Martini's entered into with Ryeland Hotel Ltd in 2004. The Offer to Purchase stated that Ryeland would build a retaining wall for the Martinis for the development of a home on the lands. Later that year Ryeland's lawyer, Terry Britton advised that his client would build the retaining wall at the cost of the Martinis. On or about June 1, 2006, our firm filed a Statement of Claim on behalf of the Martinis but the claim was never served within the one-year period. On July 6, 2005 our office sent Terry Britton a letter advising of the size of retaining wall required and that we required a response by July 13, 2005 or the Martinis may commence legal action. Our office commenced a subsequent action on July 13, 2007. Robert Bourne and Frank Cahill were handling the matter until their departures. The file then was transferred to Geoffrey Stenger in the Summer of 2008 for further handling. On June 10, 2009, BLG received correspondence from Ryeland's newly appointed counsel, Mr. Peter Vetsch, advising that he was of the view that the limitation period had expired and was willing to discontinue the action on a without cost basis. No changes. April 20, 2015	2015-107	Western Surety Company (Robyn Gurofsky)		$5500 - $6000	BLG had scheduled a special application with the trial coordinator. We had obtained an Order and subsequently sent a confirmation letter confirming the date. In January 2015 we received communication advising that a further Order was required confirming the date. A further Order was later obtained but it was too late and the date had been released. My legal assistant sent me an email advising that the date had been released on January 22, 2015. I missed that email and realized the date had been released in April 2015. Upon being advised of the release and the next available date in January-February 2016, opposing counsel filed an application to lift the stay. While unsuccessful in lifting the stay, solicitor/client costs were awarded against our client, Western Surety Company, for a number of reasons, including the history of the litigation prior to our involvement, and poor communication with the other party. Our client should not be responsible for paying these costs. The order for solicitor/client costs was granted on April 13, 2015. I have asked opposing counsel for the amount of costs payable. They have advised that they are preparing a Bill of Costs, but estimate the range to be between $5,500 to $6,000. The Law Society closed the file as the firm (Vancouver & Calgary offices) paid the Bill of Costs directly. May 15, 2015	2015-130	HSBC (John Ircandia)		$2,000,000	BLG and in particular myself, Jon Ircandia and Patrick McCarthy were retained to act on behalf of HSBC Bank Canada (HSBC) in the enforcement of security granted by K2 Developments Ltd in support of substantial loans. We also acted on HSBC's behalf respecting a related action against the guarantors of K2, Robert Adelson and Sean Krausert. Claims against K2 were in the approximate amount of $77,000,000.00. Claims against the guarantors were limited to a principal sum of $2,000,000.00. Statements of Claim were filed on or about April 2009. The claim against K2 included security enforcement claims including the appointment of a receiver to realize on all of the assets and undertaking of K2 which consisted primarily of a hotel and resort property in Canmore, Alberta. For strategic reasons, in particular, K2 was strongly contesting the action of HSBC, it was decided to pursue and file separate Statements of Claim, one against the company and a separate claim against the guarantors. The focus initially was to get a receiver appointed and to realize on the corporate debt and security. Pursuing the action against the guarantors was put in abeyance. After various contested proceedings, we were successful in having the court appoint the receiver and began the lengthy process of maximizing recoveries against the company, which took the next several years. When realizations against the company were exhausted, the client requested that we pursue the claims against the guarantors originally filed. Unfortunately with the passage of time, although we had filed the claims so did not offend a limitation period, we were offside the Alberta Rules of Court in having failed to prosecute the action. Hence the current claim. HSBC has not yet filed a Statement of Claim; they did however make an offer to settle for a nominal amount ($30K) and the offer is being considered by the insurer. I do not expect the matter will proceed to litigation. HSBC accepted settlement of $30,000; Full and Final Release issued February 29, 2016; matter finalized. (JLI, March 2016)	OPEN

July 15, 2015	2016-004	Rizopoulos, Sandy (Lenard Sali)		$1,000,000	Client (Rizopoulos) was questioned as part of the discovery process. 6 undertakings were requested. Rizopoulos provided some response to each, namely, "I do not have the records". These were not provided to opposing counsel, before I ceased to act for the client. All parties involved were served with appropriate notice and information available to me as to client address. Client was provided with copy via email; hard copy sent by registered mail. It was returned. I have no awareness as to whether the Client contacted counsel for others after I ceased to act. I heard nothing further about any part of this until a few weeks ago when the Client told me that some Order had been entered against him and he wanted me to agree to act for him. I told hi that I was too busy to even consider his request, and that I would even not consider it without adequate fee arrangements in place. Outstanding fees exceed $45,000. I came to learn that some Order or Judgment had been entered against the Client, apparently by default. I have no knowledge of the Client's interaction with Plaintiff's counsel from the date that I ceased to act. I have no direct knowledge of what occurred after I ceased to act, nor was I ever provided with any further pleadings and Motions. Advised by Counsel for Rizopoulos on February 25, 2016 that an Order setting aside the Judgment has been granted and they are in the process of having the Order signed and filed (Sali, L., March 2016)	OPEN

Aug 24, 2015	2016-015	All Season Weeping Tile Ltd. (Locklyn Price)		$10,000 to $100,000	On March 8, 2015 and in contemplation of his departure from BLG, Denver Brust transferred me two clients named Stealth Homes Ltd. ("Stealth") and Luxuria Homes Ltd. ("Luxuria") The main point of contact of these two clients is Harpreet Randev. Throughout early to mid 2015, Harpreet sought my advice on lien and general construction matters. In mid 2015, Stealth Homes Ltd. began considering purchasing, amalgamating with or taking over All Season Weeping Tile Ltd. ("All Season"). In the context of merging these two companies Harpreet asked for me to assist in cleaning up All Season Weeping Tile Ltd.'s account receivables. I had previously provided Stealth Homes Ltd. advice on some All Season matters, but explained that if I was going to be doing any work for All Season, I would need a retainer with All Season. We drafted some documents for Stealth and performed conflict searches to determine whether we could act for All Season, but needed to get a retainer before we filed anything on All Season's behalf. On July 10, 2015, I explained to Harpreet the lien process and provided some builders' lien forms and information for how All Season, Stealth, and Luxuria could file liens themselves. I also explained that we could file liens for a reasonable and explained the information that I would need. Rather than filing their own liens and on a short timeline, Harpreet asked me to draft and file a lien on July 13, 2015 at 3:54 p.m.. This lien was on All Season's behalf for work that All Season had done on July 13, 2015. In retrospect, I should have refused to process the lien without a retainer specifically from All Season, but because of the time sensitive nature of the lien and in an effort to obtain another client for the firm, I proceeded as quickly as possible. I also should have counted the days myself as Harpreet advised that the 45 days was expiring on July 17, 2015 when in fact the 45 days expired on July 14, 2015. All Season's work was done with respect to a property located at 240145 Rainbow Road, Chestermere, Alberta (the "Property"). and therefore first thing the next morning (July 14, 2015) I asked Victoria Smith, a paralegal with the firm, to pull the legal title for the municipal address 240145 Rainbow Road, Chestermere Alberta. Victoria sent back the following legal description: PLAN 0912855 BLOCK 1 LOT 1	OPEN

There was apparently some confusion because this land had been annexed from Rocky View County. I drafted the lien using the Title and the information supplied by the client and sent it away to the Land Titles Office. The information from the client was that the last day work was done on the property was May 29, 2015 and that the 45 days would expire on July 17, 2015. While it is not generally my practice to sign on behalf of the client I did so. Despite my best efforts to get the lien registered the day after receiving instructions to file it, the Land Titles Office rejected it on the basis that the 45 days had expired. I communicated the rejection to the client and explained that in the future, I need to have a representative from All Season sign for the lien. On or about July 27 or July 28, Harpreet called and advised that she had talked to the employees on site and they explained that the last time work had been done on the property was, in fact, June 17, 2015 and she asked if we could file a lien with this information. I counted the days and confirmed that the lien should be filed before July 31, 2015. I explained that I needed a signed retainer agreement from All Season and that All Season would need to sign the lien. I drafted the lien using the Title and provided it to the client after they executed a retainer agreement on July 30, 2015. The corporate representative of All Season is a gentleman named Jagdeep Shergill. Jagdeep reviewed the information, confirmed that it was correct and then signed the lien. I sent away the lien for filing on July 30, 2015 and it was accepted by the Land Titles Office. We received confirmation that the lien was successfully filed on July 31, 2015, which I communicated to the client.

					On August 8, 2015, I received an email from Jonathan Selnes of Burnet Duckworth and Palmer LLP indicating that the owner of the Title, David Wayne Mikkelsen did not retain All Season for the work that was indicated on the lien. Mr. Selnes asked for more information as to why the lien was filed on the Title. First thing Monday morning, I asked our due diligence team to confirm that the Title was the right title, but discovered that Ms. Smith had pulled the wrong title and that the lien had been filed on the wrong property. I discussed the situation with Trish Morrison of our office and then with Jeff Vallis of our office. I also communicated the fact that the lien had been registered on the wrong title and explained that All Season may have a claim against Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, but that they would have to obtain independent legal advice with respect to that claim. I offered to commence an action in Provincial Court on their behalf and received instructions to do so. Since receiving confirmation that the lien was wrongfully filed I have emailed the client daily and called frequently asking Mr Shergill to come in and sign the necessary documents to get the lien discharged. On August 20, 2015, Mr. Shergill made an appointment to come in and sign the discharge of lien. As soon as a signed discharge is obtained it will be sent to the Land Titles Office to discharge the lien. No Changes (LP – March 2016)

Sept 9, 2015	2016-023	CareVest Capital Inc. (David Madsen)		$1,500,000	We represent CareVest Capital Inc. ("CareVest"). CareVest held a mortgage over a 50% undivided interest in land owned by its borrower. The title to those land was held in the name of the borrower as to a 50% interest and in the name of several others as to the other 50%, but there was only one title. As part of a larger series of foreclosures, CareVest foreclosed on this interest and took an Order for Sale to Plaintiff of that 50% interest for the appraised value of $77 million. After CareVest's mortgage was registered, but before the Order for Sale to Plaintiff was obtained, Weinrich Contracting Ltd. ("Weinrich"), commenced a claim against the borrower and the other owners of the lands, claiming an interest in those lands pursuant to an agreement, and registered a CLP on title. That claim was for an interest in the lands equal to approximately $1.6 million of work that had been expended on the property by Weinrich. There had been discussions in November 2014 with counsel for Weinrich (Kevin Chapotelle at Bryan & Co. in Edmonton) with Robyn Gurofsky of our office such that Mr. Chapotelle wanted to ensure that his client's CLP did not get foreclosed off all of the lands, only the 50% interest charged by CareVest's mortgage. He and Ms. Gurofsky agreed to a form of Order which would split the titles and leave the CLP only on the portion not being transferred to CareVest. Ms. Gurofsky was assisting in this foreclosure. While I did receive an email that provided the agreed upon language for the Order, I did not see it or it did not register with me. I handled the Court application at which the Order for Sale to Plaintiff was granted and my solution was to obtain the Order for Sale to Plaintiff, but leave the CLP on the whole title on the understanding that the CLP would thereafter only attach the lands not being foreclosed on. CareVest took title and the CLP remained on title. CareVest now has a purchaser and the purchaser wants the CLP off title. Counsel for Weinrich (will not agree to remove the CLP. His argument is that while he did agree that the CLP could come off the 50% interest charged by CareVest at the time of taking the Order for Sale to Plaintiff, now, through an error or omission on my part, (ie. not putting specific language in the Order or not splitting the titles) the CLP creates an interest in the lands which is free and clear of CareVest's mortgage. CareVest would like us to apply to amend the Order for Sale to Plaintiff or to seek an Order that can be registered on title confirming that the CLP does not attach the interest of CareVest or its assigns. The sale is now scheduled to close November 15. An application was heard February 19, 2016 to discharge the CLP. The decision has been reserved. If the application is successful it is expected the purchaser will still close and our damages or possible damages would be limited to interest and any change in purchase price. Dec 1, 2015	2016-053	Dunlop, David and Roxanne (Jennifer Lamb)		$10,000 to $100,000	This matter was scheduled to proceed to a 7 day trial on November 30. On November 2, I received the client's instructions to make a Formal Order for the all-inclusive amount of $120,000.00 (confirmed in an email). That offer went out but a few hours later, the clients changed their minds. I didn't think the offer had gone out (my assistant sent it) so I did not know at the time I responded to them that it went out. I immediately retracted the offer over the phone but not in writing. Trial preparations continued. On November 18, 2015 the Defendant accepted the Formal Offer. After a review of this matter, I realized my error regarding the retraction. It should have been in writing as per Rule 4.25 of the Rules of Court. I immediately advised the clients of this over the telephone. The clients agreed with me that our only option was to attend Court on November 19, 2015 (a Pretrial conference had been scheduled) and have the Judgment entered confirming acceptance of the Formal Offer. The Judgment was for $120,000.00, which is the entire amount of their damages but exclusive of interest and costs. It is important to note that earlier in the day on November 18, the client had asked me to propose a Consent Judgment of $171,000.00 which comprised their damages, plus interest and disbursements. However, they instructed me to make an argument for solicitor-client costs, which I told them repeatedly we would not likely be successful on. A key fact in all of this is that the Defendant has made repeated representations that it is insolvent and has no more than $50,000.00 to satisfy our client's claim. It is already operating under the name of a new corporate entity. On November 19, 2015 our office received a cheque payable to our clients in the sum of $25,000.00 from the Defendant as partial payment towards the Judgment. We forwarded this to the clients. On November 24, 2015 the client advised me over the telephone that it is best that I no longer act for them. I sent them a final reporting letter and advised that we would send along our final Statement of Account shortly. Received correspondence confirming the clients (Dunlops) have obtained counsel – Beamer Comfort at Bennett Jones; no other changes to report. Feb 10, 2016		The Guarantee Company of North America (Patricia L. Pursuant to the agreement to provide the bonds, GCNA obtained security from Carco Pipeline, in the event that amounts were paid out under the bonds. The security included a General Security Agreement and personal indemnitees from two individuals, Frank Wilson and Carl Moffat. Court of Queen's Bench Action No. 1001-10554 was commenced on July 16, 2010 against Carco Pipeline, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Moffat for damages for amounts paid out in relation to claims made under the bonds. The claim was commenced by Mr. Shane McGurk, a former partner of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP. Mr. McGurk resigned from Borden Ladner Gervais on December 17, 2010. On February 16, 2011, all three parties were noted in default for failure to file a Statement of Defence. On February 14, 2014, Default Judgment was entered against all three parties in the amount of $2,161,452.57. On February 17, 2015, our office was contacted by counsel for Mr. Wilson, who advised that we had exchanged correspondence with Mr. McGurk and that, in December, 2010, Mr. McGurk had agreed to take no steps against Mr. Wilson without first providing reasonable notice. The December 2010 correspondence with Mr. Wilson's counsel was not placed on the file at Borden Ladner Gervais LLP. A Consent Order was entered on April 7, 2015 setting aside the Noting in Default and Default Judgment as against only Mr. Wilson, but not as against Mr. Moffat or Carco Pipeline. On July 13, 2015, counsel for Mr. Wilson served Borden Ladner Gervais LLP with an application to dismiss the action against Mr. Wilson for long delay pursuant to Rule 4.33 or dismissing the action pursuant to Rule 4.31. Hall left HHSRB in July 2012 to form a competitor, but remained a shareholder of HHSRB. Hall alleges that Hamilton, Soles and Gregor breached the Alberta Business Corporations Act, and acted in an oppressive manner by causing HHSRB to enter into a Purchase and Sale Agreement with Boyden whereby HHSRB's assets were transferred to Boyden for less than fair market value and in the absense of the required special shareholders' resolution. The issues in the litigation include HHSRB's revenue during the period after Hall left the company, and the revenue distribution practices of the shareholders of HHSRB both before and after Hall departed HHSRB. Each of Hall, Hamilton, Soles and Gregor are executive search practitioners. They refer to one another as "partners", and their historical practice of profit distribution involved a formula that considered the revenue contribution of their "practices", and their contributions to the administration of the company. The Originating Application was heard on December 11, 2014. Affidavits were filed by Hall, Soles, Gregor, Travis, and HHSRB's accounting consultant Jackie Altwasser. All deponents were cross examined prior to the application. The Court of Queen's Bench did not grant the relief sought in the Originating Application, but instead ordered the matter to be re-commenced by Statement of Claim, and set out a schedule for pre-trial steps. This included a deadline for Affidavits of Records of all parties by February 27, 2015 (which was subsequently amended to March 13, 2015). On March 15, 2015, all parties exchanged Affidavits of Records. Landon Miller of our office, who assisted me with the Originating Application, collected the client's records and prepared the Affidavit of Records. Boyden's Affidavit of Records included 127 records, one of which is an email that Jackie Altwasser (HHSRB's accounting consultant) sent to Robert Travis on April 9, 2014 attaching a large spreadsheet setting out revenue data of HHSRB during the relevant period, including an income statement. Revenue from specific customers is included. The court ordered schedule required the Plaintiff to conduct questioning by April 30, 2015. The Plaintiff did not conduct questioning by that date, but instead brought an application to compel answers to certain undertakings requested from Jackie Altwasser and Kevin Gregor, which included requests to provide the source accounting data of HHSRB in Simply Accounting

CLOSED MATTERS FOR/IN THE PAST 5 YEARS

February 12, 2008		Grizzcon Inc. (Jennifer Lepp)		$36,470.00	Our client is Grizzcon Inc. On January 2, 2009, we had a deadline for filing a Certificate of Lis Pendens on a Builders' Lien we filed in July. Our client had built a barn and a riding arena for the Matthews (the homeowners) and was not paid in full. The name of the Requester on the Document Registration Request submitted to Land Titles was the assistant of another lawyer at our firm. It should have been myself and my assistant. On January 5, 2009, Land Titles called this assistant and left a voicemail saying that our Certificate of Lis Pendens was rejected because it was not a Court-certified copy, it was a photocopy of the Court-certified copy. I phoned them back when I had been told about the call on January 6, 2009 and spoke with a manager to correct this. Land Titles refused and said I was out of time as the deadline was January 2. The lien was for the amount of $36,470.00. I have advised the client of this issue. There are two other liens on the title relating to the same dispute, and one has also expired as no Certificate of Lis Pendens was filed. We have filed a Statement of Claim on behalf of Grizzcon, which we plan on amending shortly to frame it as a breach of contract and debt claim. There are still discussions going on among the parties to try to resolve this matter outside the channels of litigation. The total amount in dispute is roughly $90,000.00. The homeowner of the property we liened (the Defendant in our action) is taking the position that the liens on title do not bother him and he does not intend to make an order to pay any lien fund into court and to essentially, "bring on the litigation". There is no mortgage on this property and it does not appear that they are moving or dissipating their assets that we know of. – JRL (March, 2009) No changes. We have attempted many settlement discussions but settlement has not been reached at this point. (JRL, March 2010) The file is in this exact same position as of March 2, 2011. As of March 2011, no claim has been made. The limitation period on same has expired and ALIA has closed their file. The client has A/R and has not returned emails, correspondence or telephone calls in months. We will proceed to having his account taxed possibly. (JRL, March 2, 2011)	CLOSED (March 2011)

They alleged that the firm may have been negligent in the advice given and that unnecessary affidavits were filed. They also alleged that the firm may have had client conflicts on a previous matter handled by John Poetker. BLG has not received any formal notification of any claims, but it is possible that 979899 may commence an action against the firm for recovery of fees paid.	CLOSED (March 2011)

The transaction was complex and involved the claimants in very extensive obligations, particularly Mr. Seaman who took on extensive personal obligations which would be considered to be unusual in most commercial transactions. Shortly after the Partnership and financings were closed difficulties began to arise between the partners resulting in the claimants defaulting in many of their obligations to their partners. An action was commenced in British Columbia against the claimants by their partners and a summary judgment was obtained against the claimants in the amount of $11 Million plus costs. 				We are not yet aware of the details of the settlement. It has been alleged by the claimants that Allan Nielsen did not adequately protect the claimants vis-à-vis their partners, the lenders and others associated with the transactions. The claimants allege that they were relying on Allan Nielsen in making many of the decisions they made in connection with the transactions and that they have been exposed to damages because they were not properly protected and advised. There is also an allegation made, which is not reflected in the Statement of Claim, that a transaction whereby the individual claimant transferred certain assets to his spouse was not properly handled. On February 28, 2001 a Statement of Claim was issued by the claimants in the amount of $50 Million. 					then on September 28, 2010 by Mr. Peter Stanford, coverage counsel for AICA. Various settlement discussions then took place with Mr. Stanford. On October 26, 2010 I met with Mr. Zackowski to discuss settlement. My notes indicate that I recommended that the clients accept $45,000 plus costs and disbursements to settle. I was also instructed to be cautious with the form of release as I understood Mr. Zackowski had a separate matter with Mr. Smith that our firm had a conflict on. I transmitted this offer and was met with a counter offer from Mr. Stanford at $34,000 (all inclusive). I took this offer to Mr. Zackowski and it was rejected. Shortly after this was communicated to Mr. Stanford, I was advised (on November 8, 2010) that someone at AICA had decided to shut the matter down and that Mr. Smith's insurer would settle at $45,000 (all inclusive). On November 9, 2010 I confirmed that this amount would include any fees Mr. and Mrs. Zackowski might otherwise owe on the work Mr. Smith had done on their personal income tax and my notes from the conversation indicate that Mr. Sanford did not consider this to be an issue. I then confirmed via email that the clients were agreeable to settlement on these terms (although I made no mention of Mr. Smith's fees in the email). I received Mr. Stanford's confirmation of settlement later that day. Originally Mr. Smith wanted a Consent Dismissal. I had some concerns with this and language in the form of Release given my understanding of the other matter Mr. Zackowski had with Mr. Smith (on which our office was not acting). As such, there was a delay in provision of executed closing documents (this occurred in February 2011). On January 19, 2011, Mr. Zackowski sent me an email wherein he wished to confirm the terms of the settlement. Within same was a line that read "...the settlement [will] include any & all of Mr. Smith's professional fees past, present and future for both myself, [Mrs. Zackowski] or my corporation JeWyDu Consulting Services Ltd." I missed the reference to the corporate entity referenced in the email and unfortunately responded in the positive. I note, however, that this was after the settlement had been reached (Mr. Zackowski thinks it was sent on January 19, 2010 but it was a year later). Mr. Zackowski then apparently received invoices from Mr. Smith respecting JeWyDu Consulting Services Ltd. in the amount of $11,500 (although I'm somewhat unclear when he received these invoices). Mr. Zackowski now claims that I was instructed from the beginning to include any fees for the corporate entity in the settlement. I understand from Mr. Zackowski that he does not take issue with the invoices or the work Mr. Smith did for the corporation. I have no record in my file of having been advised to include such fees in the settlement discussions.

		Internal Contact: Jeff Vallis			On February 2, 2010, I sent the client the final version of the Loan Agreement, Corporate and Personal GSA for the Borrower and his company and a Personal Guarantee and Certificate (collectively the "Loan Documents"). The client was going to look after getting everything signed. The Client did not give me particulars about when they were planning on advancing the Loan. I later learnt that the Loan was advanced on February 2, 2010 without my knowledge. On February 25, 2010, I followed up with the client to see if the Loan Documents had been executed and if they were going ahead with the loan. The client responded that everything had been executed and that I should go ahead and register the GSA. On or about March 4, 2010, I received the signed documents from the client. Upon receipt of the documents, I failed to advise them that the Guarantees Acknowledgment Certificate was not completed correctly as the Borrower had not signed it before a notary. The Borrower has since defaulted on the Loan and the Clients are trying to collect on the Loan. The Guarantee cannot be used as security. After reviewing the Commitment Letter, SM emailed the Rossis to advise them that he had received the Commitment Letter from NP and he attached a copy of same for their review and asked them if they had any "comments, questions or concerns". In SM's email, he also stated that "I note the total fees paid are over $120,000 (not including the interest rate)". 					he can go ahead and make his own travel arrangements [sic], as per Dino's request." <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SM met with the Rossis at 10:00AM. During the meeting SM walked the Rossis through all ten pages of the Commitment Letter. SM pointed out all fees associated with this loan including a calculation of interest paid over the term of the loan. SM made it clear to the Rossis that while he has worked with private lenders in the past, he had had no prior dealings with CFC. • During the meeting, the Rossis provided SM with a certified cheque in the amount of $33,100 of which, $32,100 was ultimately sent to CFC and $1,000 was sent to CFC's lawyer. • Among other terms of the Commitment Letter, SM pointed out to the Rossis that the Commitment Letter clearly states that the full $32,100 was "nonrefundable in the event that the transaction fails to close." The cover letter to the Commitment Letter also states that the $30,000 is a "deposit on lender's administration fee – nonrefundable in the event that the Borrower does not close the transaction or breaches the terms of the commitment". Further, the cover letter similarly states that the $2,100 inspection fee was "nonrefundable". • During the meeting with the Rossis, SM asked the Rossis why this funding was such a rush and why they were willing to pay such high fees. The Rossis advised that their current lenders (of which there were three of them with mortgages on the Property) had lost patience with the Rossis and wanted to be paid out immediately. In particular, Neufeld Capital Inc. ("Neufeld") was owed approximately $963,260 in principal, which was accruing interest at a rate of 16.75%. Mr. Rossi advised SM that he had borrowed a lot of money from Neufeld and it's principal over the years and he wanted to pay him back as soon as possible to ensure that that source of revenue was available to him in the future, though he did not like paying Neufeld such a high amount of interest and fees. • After the Rossis executed the documents, funds were couriered to CFC's lawyer, namely Barry Poulson at 1054 Centre Street, Suite 152, Thornhill, ON L4J 8E5. May 12, 2009 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We were subsequently advised that CFC had provided the incorrect lawyer information and going forward they would be using Daniel Kenney of Davis LLP. SM advised NP that he would speak with CFC's counsel (Davis LLP) to confirm what exactly

Following our telephone conversation, Davis LLP sent a follow-up email to SM advising that they "will have the security documents to [SM] for [SM's] review and comments in due course" and they attached a letter from their office confirming that they were counsel for CFC; requesting evidence of title insurance; and requesting mortgage payout statements for the mortgages currently registered on title. March 15, 2010	CLLAS 2010-126	Dan Hill (Frank Foran & Julie Hopkins)			It involves an action by a person who resides in England (plaintiff) who claims he has a beneficial ownership interest in the shares of a holding company he is suing (and its subsidiaries). The claimed interest arises out of a family discretionary trust of the common shares of the holding company set up by the father of the plaintiff, for tax planning purposes, in 1975 in favour of a number of potential beneficiaries including the plaintiff. In 2005, the plaintiff commenced the action against the trustees of the trust, the companies, and the sole beneficiary to whom the shares had been distributed by the trustees in 1995, namely his brother (who had himself been a trustee of the trust since inception). He later added, as a defendant, his father, the settlor of the trust. The father passed away in 2008 and there is now an issue about whether his estate should be added. Up until late March of 2009, all the defendants (including the companies that BLG now acts for) were represented by the MacPherson, Leslie and Tyerman firm ("MLT"). The plaintiff commenced his action in Alberta although many of the matters complained about relating to the handling of the family trust by the trustees and the operations of the businesses both before and after the distribution in 1995, occurred in Saskatchewan. The value of the holding company is very significant. The operating companies, whose shares it owns (directly or indirectly), are profitable companies and well known, primarily in Saskatchewan and, to a lesser degree, Alberta. The plaintiff's initial claim was that the trust was improperly wound up and all the shares of the holding company were wrongfully distributed by the Trustees to his brother (a named defendant) in 1995.	CLOSED (March 2014)

CLAIMS SCHEDULE F

SUMMARY OF ALL OPEN AND CLOSED CLAIMS AND CIRCUMSTANCES
FOR PAST FIVE YEARS

(REVISED MARCH, 2016)

					During the course of the litigation the defendants became aware of documents going back to 1976 (a year or so after the trust was set up) that indicate that the trust was actually wound up (or intended by the trustees to be wound up) and the shares to be distributed 25% each to the plaintiff, his two sisters, and his brother (the same brother to whom the shares were later distributed by the trustees in 1995). When the existence of these 1976 documents was discovered during the litigation, the settlor father, was confronted with them and he advised that the 1976 wind-up and distribution of the trust property (the shares) never was completed. He then proceeded to rip up some of the documents. They were, however, retrieved and produced by MLT in the litigation which, of course, resulted in an amendment to the plaintiff's statement of claim alleging that he has been a beneficial shareholder since 1976. In March 2009, MLT decided that it would like to have further legal assistance in defending this significant lawsuit. It approached Randy Block and myself and we agreed to take over the defence of the named corporate defendants, namely the holding company (whose shares had been distributed 100% to the plaintiff's brother in 1995) and the main operating subsidiary. We have been acting for the companies for about a year. Julie Hopkins and I have been handling the day to day issues on the case and Randy has been involved in the defence to a lesser extent but will be more actively engaged when the matter goes to trial. The claims against the companies are basically oppression or unfair disregard of the plaintiff's interests and "knowing assistance" to the other defendants for the cause of actions alleged against them including breach of trust. The trial has been bifurcated such that liability issues before the 1995 distribution will first be litigated. However, this will still, by necessity, involve a review of a number of dealings by the companies. Our retainer agreement is limited to defending the companies only in the lawsuit. We are not providing general corporate advise. The plaintiff is a very litigious individual. Our research shows he has been involved in litigation in numerous jurisdictions. He is a lawyer by training but a businessman who feels badly treated by his father who set up the trust, his brother who received 100% of the common shares and the trustees. He also has just changed his own counsel in the action and has made allegations in a recent affidavit that he has received some bad legal advise. One of the plaintiff's many lawyers, an English solicitor, has written us a letter saying that we (as counsel defending the claim for the companies) owe his client duties to protect his interests in the assets of the company. He asserts that "it is the duty of the officers, agents and advisors to the Companies to ensure that any improper assistance of (the plaintiff's brother to whom 100% of the shares were distributed in 1995) does not continue and, as far as possible is redressed. Insofar as such agents, advisors and officers of the companies fail to do so they will be individually aggravating the damages suffered by the Claimant and may be personally held to account. They should be advised to that effect." The letter goes on to state: "The question will also be asked to what extent the Companies'

This shall include to what extent they know or should have known about any of the above and what advise they took of should have taken in fulfillment of their duties to the Companies." It seems that should the plaintiff win the lawsuit which we are defending for the companies, he may advance a claim against this firm and the counsel involved in the defence as "advisors" for some type of damages he claims he may suffer relating to how the company is dealing with its assets during the course of the litigation. In the circumstances, I think we should consider the letter from the plaintiff's English solicitor to me as notice of a potential claim and ,out of an abundance of caution, put our insurers on notice. Please let me know if you need the names of the parties and any of the pleadings. There is nothing to add to this description – except that the father's (settlor's) estate will not be proceeded against in the Alberta action and that the trial (bifurcated as per the above) will now take place in early 2012. (FRF, March 2011) The trial commenced February 21, 2012 and the evidentiary portion will conclude during the week of March 19, 2012. During the trial, the Plaintiff has asserted that the Corporate Defendants, including its counsel, BLG, improperly did not disclose a portion of the evidence of a witness (a former officer/employee of the Corporate Defendants) prior to trial and we were under a duty to do so. Although the witness was not examined for discovery, he had provided an undertaking response to the Corporate Representative of the Corporate Defendants prior to our becoming counsel. The Plaintiff apparently is asserting that the undertaking response required a continuing obligation of disclosure of the former officer/employee's information in a certain area. He only recalled the information while reviewing documents in meeting with us as a potential witness for trial. It is our view that the undertaking did not cover the undisclosed information and there was no duty to disclose. The evidence was adduced at trial and cross-examined upon. The Plaintiff then claimed that it had been concealed from him. Whether it should have been previously disclosed will likely form part of the closing argument before the trial judge. We report this development because the Plaintiff has pleaded and continually asserts that the Defendants including the Corporate Defendants and their previous counsel have concealed evidence from him both before and after the commencement of proceedings. It appears now that he may make the same allegation against us (BLG) as trial counsel. We do not believe we have breached any pre-trial disclosure rules or obligations and the trial judge will deal with this allegation. However, out of an abundance of caution, we again report this

I (upon receiving instructions from my client) agreed to accept part of the proposal which was the sale of two condominium units and receiving additional proceeds so that the amount realized by my client from those sales was $500,000. This part of the proposal was accepted and closed. The remaining part of the proposal which was settlement of the foreclosure action by receiving payment of $2.2 million was not addressed or responded to. I only accepted the portion of the offer that related to the sale of the two units and proceeds from those units. The solicitor for the Defendants has taken the position that a settlement in its totality was reached and we cannot repudiate the final portion of the settlement offer which is the payment of $2.2 million. This matter is closed. March 30, 2010	CLLAS 2010-135	Servus Credit Union (Ryan Kipp) Internal Contact: Jeff Vallis		$375,000	Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG") was acting for Brian Ostrander and Angela Ostrander (the "Purchasers") in connection with the purchase of a property municipally described as 88 Grizzly Rise, Cochrane, Alberta. The Purchasers had not sold the property they owned at 24 Arbour Estates Landing N.W., Calgary, Alberta, and Servus Credit Union (who was providing financing on the purchase of the Grizzly Rise property) sent BLG a promissory note and loan agreement for a loan of $375,000 from Servus Credit Union to the Purchasers, and an assignment of sale of proceeds from the sale of the Arbour Estates property (the "Assignment of Proceeds"). Under the Assignment of Proceeds, the Purchasers agreed that the $375,000 loan would be repaid from the proceeds of sale of the Arbour Estates property. BLG acknowledged receipt of the Assignment of Proceeds. This documentation was signed and forwarded to Servus Credit Union. Subsequently when the Arbour Estates Landing property sold and unbeknownst to BLG, the Purchasers retained Brent Mainwood, Barrister and Solicitor, to act on the sale of the Arbour Estates property. The proceeds of the Arbour Estates property were apparently paid to the Purchasers and not to Servus Credit Union. The loan is in default and we have been advised that demand has been made on the Purchasers for repayment. No changes. (JDV, March 2012) No changes. (JDV, March 2013) No changes. April 25, 2014	2014-118	Sandra J. Burkett (Melanie McDonald)		$300,385	In this file BLG LLP represented Aviva Insurance Company of Canada and it was with respect to an estate bond issued by Aviva. Sandra J. Burkett (the claimant) was the former executor of the estate. She needed to file an estate bond with her probate application since she did not reside in Alberta (she lives in California). The former estate lawyer, Ian Meikle, of Meikle Osgood law firm sent estate funds of $300,385 to Sandra J. Burkett. Sandra J. Burkett did not distribute those funds in accordance with the terms of the Will (she didn't give proper share of the estate to one of the beneficiaries – her sister-in-law, Lynn Milburn). Lynn Milburn was appointed the replacement executor and then Lynn Milburn brought a court application for the return of the funds that Sandra J. Burkett received and named Aviva to pay out on the estate bond. An application was scheduled for April 10, 2013 and Sandra J. Burkett appeared in Court from California. The matter was adjourned after the application started to see if we could resolve it as Sandra J. Burkett agreed in Court to return the funds. 					100923) by Justice P.M. Clark directing Sandra J. Burkett pay the balance of $18,600 on April 10, 2014. Sandra J. Burkett did not appeal this Order. This was a final Order which resolved this application. After the April 10, 2013 Order application, Aviva settled with the estate lawyer, Ian Meikle, of Meikle Osgood law firm's insurer, represented by Perry Mack, and they contributed $20,000 to Aviva's legal fees. There was an Order and release with respect to Aviva's claim against the estate lawyer. The claim by Aviva was brought against the estate lawyer since he got an Order to release the bond after giving the funds to Sandra J. Burkett and without notifying Aviva about such Order. I presume Sandra J. Burkett does not want to pay the balance of $18,600 that was due on April 19, 2014 which led to the email from Sandra J. Burkett dated April 20, 2014 stating I was being sued. I have not been served with a Statement of Claim nor other Court documents and the first I have heard of this potential lawsuit is the email. There are no Court dates set at this time. I am not aware that (nor anyone at BLG) did anything wrong that would lead to a lawsuit (as I said we were opposing counsel and at no time represented Sandra J. Burkett). Robert Allen and Brian Conway are other opposing lawyers (Sandra J. Burkett was not represented). I am not sure shy Bank of Montreal is listed in her email of April 20, 2014. No changes. January 13, 2015	2015-070	Island City Investments Ltd., The Lorne Charles Webster Spousal Trust, Royal Trust Corporation of Canada (John Kevin Scott) Handled by: Shannon James		$2,000,000	The potential claim arises in connection with a reorganization of the estate of Lorne Charles Webster. As part of a reorganization plan, two corporations were amalgamated pursuant to s.184(1) of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). However, contrary to s.184(1)(b)(ii), due to an inadvertent error, the wrong articles were filed during the amalgamation, and the articles of the subsidiary corporation were filed instead of the articles of the parent corporation. The amalgamated corporation, Island City Investments Ltd., did its financial and tax reporting on the assumption that its articles were those of the predecessor parent, and the issued and outstanding shares were the same as those of the predecessor parent. Despite an unrelated earlier application for rectification of corporate registry records to correct the effective date of the amalgamation initiated by the client, the error was only discovered years later when it was requested that the Island City Investments Ltd. minute book be updated and replacement share certificates bearing the post-amalgamation name be issued. It is expected that the error can be corrected either through administrative channels pursuant to s.170 of the ABCA, or by order of the Court of Queen's Bench, with no impact or prejudice to the client or other interested parties.	CLOSED (Aug 2015)

					After the issue was discovered, BLG sought and obtained approval from the firm's insurers to take corrective measures, as described above. It was decided to first attempt to rectify the situation through administrative channels. On March 16, 2015, a statutory declaration requesting correction of the Alberta corporate registry records pursuant to s.170 of the ABCA was sworn and submitted to the Alberta corporate registry. As at March 20, 2015, no response has been received from Alberta Corporate Registry. If the Registry declines to exercise its power to correct the articles of Island City Investments Ltd., a second remedy is available in the form of an application for rectification in the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench. (SJ, March 2015)
November 7, 2013	2014-156	Jatinder Dhillon (Patrick Heinsen)		$85,000	Jatinder Dhillon alleges she lent $85,000.00 to Bhinder Mundi. The loan was secured by a Promissory Note. Demand was made on such Note and no payment was forthcoming. While I was an associate at BLG I brought an action against Mr. Mundi on the Promissory Note (December 22, 2009). There was a second Promissory Note in the same amount evidencing a loan Jatinder Dhillon made to a Mr. Samra. Both Promissory Notes were drafted by Amer Preet Singh. I am of the opinion that the Promissory Notes are unenforceable. As such, a Statement of Claim has been issued against Mr. Singh (filed October 7, 2011 and served October 1, 2012). Elena Semenova at Peacock Linder is acting for Mr. Singh. The last material step on the Mundi action was in 2010 with the exchange of Affidavits of Records and the producible documents. By that time conduct of the file was with another BLG associate. Several efforts appear to have been made to schedule Questioning with response from Mr. Mundi's counsel. I left BLG at the end of March of 2013. The client instructed that this file be transferred. In the opening of the file here it would appear the existence of the Mundi action was overlooked (no Notice of Change of Representation was filed on it whereas one was on the Samra action) and nothing was entered into the limitation system respecting the "drop dead". Mr. Samra did not defend and enforcement proceedings have been undertaken against him. I was served with a Rule 4.33 application November 6, 2013. I have attempted to the client's husband, Bruno Dhillon, to advise of the application. I act for Mr. Dhillon on two other matters. Given the nature of the Promissory Note, I am of the opinion that the action against Mr. Mundi is likely untenable in any event and have expressed this opinion to the client. I have sought instructions respecting agreeing to a discontinuance of action on a without costs basis to avoid the necessity of the Rule 4.33 application but have not heard back from the Dhillons. I have not contacted Mr. Mundi's counsel yet. Letter received from ALIA confirming receipt of potential claim. (Claim #20140209 PCA) (Heinsen Nov 2013)	CLOSED (Dec 2015)

The potential claim/complaint arises with respect to a Share Purchase Agreement dated August 19, 2013 in which Kent Howie and Kasim Salim acted for the Independent Planning Group Inc. The transaction was complex. Many iterations of the final agreement went back and forth before the agreement was finalized. An ambiguity has arisen with respect to some of the definitions in the agreement that address adjustments to the purchase price. The buyer calculates these reductions to be $2,700,000.00. Our clients believe the purchase price should only be reduced by $133,865.00. As of March 15, 2015, the matter was to be reported to LawPro. It is not clear that there was any negligence in the negotiations or drafting that was done. There is a potential issue with the final wording that could be attributed to BLG. The matter is just being reported to LawPro with a request for guidance on how to proceed. 	Unknown ($2,500,000.00 approx/potential)

Statement of Claim was issued on May 24, 2013 against Gowlings and John O'Toole without any previous indication a claim was going to be advanced. The allegation is that Mr. O'Toole gave negligent advice with respect to whether or not the Plaintiff, Gregory King, a former partner at Gowlings, should defend a claim against him in Italy. Plaintiff alleges that based upon Mr. O'Toole's advice, he decided not to attorn to Italian jurisdiction and did not defend the Italian action. Judgment was obtained against Mr. King in August, 2001 and proceedings were brought in Ontario in 2007 to enforce the judgment. Judgment was ordered enforced pursuant to an Order made in Ontario on November 30, 2010. Mr. King fought the enforcement Order all the way to the Supreme Court of Canada and lost. 	Description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Potential claim for tax (c. US$340,000) plus interest from March 30/02 for failing to declare and pay dividends within 5 years of Canadian residency. See memorandum of June 29, 2004 from Max Weder and Don MacDonald's letter of June 29, 2004 (document no. 1293212:01) to the Lawyers Insurance Fund (c.c. to CLLAS). Issues: (1) date of Trust's residency (March 15/96 – landed or May 6/96 – house purchase) from which 5 year exemption of tax on income of offshore trust begins (c. US$854,050 dividend [CND$1,307,000] declared on April 25, 01); (2) estoppel – because of issued Clearance Certificate on March 27, 2003; (3) whether Trust deemed to be earlier a resident of Canada for earlier acquiring property from a resident of Canada. As at December 31, 2004: Ta-Ming Wang is receiving independent legal advice (K. Affleck) re his tax liability. BLG has produced a copy of its file to Mr. Affleck. January 18, 2005: MNR assesses Trust for tax, penalty and interest. To December 31, 2005, no claims made or actions commenced against BLG or OHN. February 7, 2006, assessments confirmed. April 12, 2006, Trust files Notice of Appeal. July 4, 2006, MNR files Reply. To December 31, 2006, no action commenced against BLG or OHN. To December 31, 2007, no action commenced against BLG or OHN. 2009 – expect rectification application to be made in Caymans which, if successful, would reduce CRA claim to about $35,000. Court application will proceed in late March 2010. If successful the claim will be reduced to about $35,000 plus representational costs. The application for rectification in the Caymans was only partially successful. There followed a debate between repair counsel and CRA concerning the effect of the court's ruling. CRA subsequently agreed to settle on the basis that there was a $70,000 capital gain in the relevant period, which should limit the additional tax payable to about $34,000. There will also be some mitigation/representational costs which may be shared with the accountant. Remediation/defence counsel advised on March 22, 2012 that Mr. Wang appears disinterested in pursuing a claim and thus the LIF file will be closed shortly, with the proviso that it can be reopened if a claim later arises. 	Description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Possible claim for breach of obligations as stakeholder of shares in a commercial transaction. See letter of Cameron Mowatt to Lawyers Insurance Fund dated July 23, 2009. An action has been commenced against Shin and others but is currently dormant. Note that Shin was a member of Boughton Law Corporation when the events giving rise to the claim arose, thus BLG's CLLAS policy is not responding to this claim. The matter has been in abeyance while the parties to the main action amend their pleadings. Counsel appointed by LIF has apparently advised Shin that upon reviewing the amendments there does not appear to be proper grounds for Hong to assert a claim against him. We do not receive reports from defense counsel in this matter as Boughton Law Corporation is the firm at risk. Mr Shin advises that the trial between the Plaintiffs (his former clients) and the Defendants (Jason Hong and Argo) is scheduled to proceed on April 23, 2012. The Defendants commenced third party proceedings against Mr Shin and Boughton, alleging negligence, breach of undertaking and conflict of interest. LIF is apparently considering a modest contribution to settlement. Mr. Shin is no longer with the firm. The third party claim against him and his former firm (Boughton Law Corp.) apparently continues but there is no exposure to BLG. No change as of December 31, 2013. CLOSED.

See letter of Cameron Mowatt to Lawyers Insurance Fund dated December 20, 2011 LIF has appointed defence counsel, Michael Armstrong of Armstrong Simpson. To December 31, 2011 no action had been commenced against Kopstein, Keilty, BLG or Blakes. An action was commenced against all anticipated defendants, including BLG, in July 2012 (the "2012 Action"). Counsel appointed by LIF has filed a Response to Civil Claim (defence) on behalf of all defendants. The claim appears to lack merit. In June 2015, counsel for the plaintiffs, Lisa Ridgedale, served a Notice of Intention to Withdraw as Lawyer for all plaintiffs. No objections were made. In July 2015 Dean Davison filed Notices of Appointment of Lawyer for the plaintiffs Evolution Fund, Hines, Tess Lawson, Cousins, Pinch, Kevin Lawson, Friedman and Thomas, but not for plaintiffs Schomaker, Riggins (x2), Carol, Zanatta, Croxen, Burns, Adams, Best, McGee, Crozex, Drysdale and Loo. As a result Lisa Ridgedale is still counsel of record for the latter group. Davison has now (September 2015) delivered Notices of Intention to Withdraw as Lawyer for Cousins, Friedman and Thomas. He has not yet filed a Notice of Withdrawal as lawyer for those parties, but will be entitled to do so if those plaintiffs do not object to his withdrawal 7 days after they receive the Notice of Intention. At present, Davison he remains counsel of record for those parties. In the second related action against BLG et al (the "2014 Action"): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A Notice of Civil Claim was filed September 16, 2014 against the same defendants as the 2012 Action, plus one additional defendant, : 0772835 B.C. Ltd, a now-dissolved company of defendant Jeff Wiegel. Original counsel for all plaintiffs was Lisa Ridgedale. In July 2015 Dean Davison filed Notices of Appointment of Lawyer for plaintiffs Skidmore and Taylor. So, as with the 2012 Action, there are two different law firms acting for different groups of plaintiffs. Michael Armstrong filed a Response to Civil Claim on behalf of the defendants. Both the 2012 Action and the 2014 Action appear to lack merit. The procedural problems are currently overtaking any progress on the merits.
